

The Best of Costa Rica Hotels

Costa Rica hotels cater for a wide range of visitors, from the fun-loving families to surfers and those visitors who really prefer to stay in a hotel that offers their clients the full extent of the latest an international hotel can offer. Hotels such as the Best Western Jaco Beach Resort are ideal for a family holiday due to its proximity to an excellent beach and its delightfully joyous holiday atmosphere.

There are many such Costa Rica hotels dotted along the Pacific shoreline, each one with a range of excellent facilities that attract visitors with their wide range of excellent facilities. If you feel like getting away from poolside and beach most Costa Rica hotels organise tours for guests staying with them.

If you fancy visiting the Manuel Antonio National Park to get a glimpse of uncommon animals that live in the wild, such as iguanas, macaws and sloths, visit the reception desk at whichever one of the Costa Rica hotels you are staying at and they will arrange the booking for you. For the very brave, come face-to-face with the native crocodiles with a tour of the Crocodile River, or if you have a head for heights, arrange a canopy tour to experience the treetop world amidst the Costa Rica rainforest.

All Costa Rica hotels are able to arrange organised trips for you so you get to experience the very best the country of Costa Rica has to offer. The Jaco Beach Hotel is a particularly secure area and, with a security guard wandering around the grounds, the resort is possibly safer than many other Costa Rica hotels after dark.

The pool is lit in the evenings and remains open quite late, guests can take advantage of the tennis courts on site while the children have enticing play areas to keep them thoroughly occupied. For those guests who prefer to entertain themselves inside during the evening there are excellent bar facilities as well as free WiFi access and a really good restaurant.

Overall, the Jaco Beach Hotel is probably one of the best Costa Rica hotels around this particular length of coast and guests who have stayed there have commented on how enjoyable their sojourn was at this particular hotel.
